By Walt Disney

Julius with his guitar is parked in front of a house serenading. The occupants throw things at him but he persists. They finally move the house away.

Across the street, he sees a young miss up on a balcony making eyes at him. He climbs the balcony and makes love to the girl. The villain in a suit of armor comes along, pulls Julius off the balcony and himself woos the girl. Julius throws rocks at his rival and tries to spear him, but to no avail, he cannot penetrate the suit of armor. Finally, Julius uses a can opener and cuts a hole in the seat of his rival's pants.

A chase ensues. Alice is riding a junk wagon containing all tin and iron ware. Julius jumps on the wagon and comes out with a stove over him. His rival lights the stove and Julius is forced to come out thru the back. The villain doesn't see him come out and is laughing hysterically, thinking Julius is burning. Julius ignites the seat of his rival's pants and he burns in his suit of armor. Julius' lady love joins him and they go away.

THE END.
